

Museum Coordinator

National Capital Radio & Television Museum
Bowie, Maryland, USA

About the NCRTV Museum

The National Capital Radio & Television Museum (NCRTV) opened in 1999 and is open to the public three days a week.

Located in the 1906 Harmel House, the Mitchellville general storekeeper's residence, the NCRTV museum operates in union with the property owner, the City of Bowie. It presents the history of broadcasting, a medium that dramatically shaped our lives from the 1920s to today, through active collecting, innovative programs, and fascinating exhibitions.
